If it shall turn out that the dull season ought to regret it.

DISTRICT COURT (Chief Justice Titus on the bench) convenes next Monday. We published names of grand and petit jurors drawn, last week.

CAPT. W. D. FULLER, who has recently been transferred from the 3d Artillery to Comp'y B, 21st Infantry, now stationed at Camp Apache, passed through Tucson this week to take command of his company.

VALUABLE DONATION.—Col. Thomas S.
Dunn recently presented the Arizona Library with the complete works of Daniel Webster in six large volumes. They constitute a valuable addition to Library, and we trust will ever be preserved there, no less for their value than as evidence of the donor's liberality.

SECRETARY BASHFORD, on Monday last, appointed Theodore F. White, assistant secretary, who is perfectly competent, and will discharge the duties of Secretary during Mr. Bashford's absence.

CAPT. TRAYER has under way the most extensive vegetable garden ever known about Tucson. His seeds come directly from Philadelphia, and embrace every variety of table roots and plants, and also many flower seeds. A little more attention to fruits and flowers about this city would not be amiss.

SUP'R GRIOT, of the San Diego and Tuc-son Stage Line, has labored untiringly in getting the tri-weekly mail service in operation, and after two weeks of prompt arrivals and departures with through mails each time, we are convinced he thoroughly did his work. He is determined to keep it up as begun, and we believe he will succeed.

SUPERVISORS' DOINGS.—Board met March 1st. Present, Messrs. Hinds and Sweeney.
Bills were allowed, to wit: Robert Moser, $35; Sam'l Ragion, $75; H. Ott, $50; John Miller, $31; Chas. H. Meyers, $27; J. S.
Douglas, one hundred dol.; Sam'l Hughes, ninety-three dol.; ninety dol.; John S. Thayer, seven dol. fifty cts. It was ordered that the Sheriff purchase ten dollars' worth of tobacco for the prisoners; also that the Catholic priests be allowed the use of school desks belonging to the county.

LT. BOMUS, with a small escort arrived from Grant on Wednesday evening. He came to that point with Col.
Green from Camp Apache, who had called there for provisions on a scout with 75 men. The command on its way through the mountains to Grant, jumped a rancheria, captured some horses and destroyed a quantity of provisions. Lt. Bomus started on his return yesterday morning, and upon reaching Grant, Col. Green will resume his scouting.

THE GUARDS detailed under Special Orders No. 9, from Department Headquarters, arrived from Crittenden on Thursday, reported to Col. Dunn, commanding Camp Lowell, and were assigned and started to their respective stations yesterday. Sergeant O'Leary with ten men constitute the guard at San Pedro; Sergeant Phillipson and same number at Cienega, and Sergeant Annis and same number at Picacho.
If these guards move about and are somewhat demonstrative in their several localities, they will exercise a good influence on the hostile Indians.

Lee & Scott Mine.

There are eight men at work upon this mine, and have been for over two weeks. To-day Messrs Lee, DeLong, Hinds and probably others will visit the works—about 15 miles west of town. Mr. Lee informs us that it is his purpose to extract about 100 tons of ore, and that he may soon start some to San Francisco by Capt. Hind's teams via Arizona City. There was once before shipped, in charge of Capt.
Mowry, to that city, 7,200 pounds, which was sold there at $56 per ton and shipped to England. The sale gave a small profit over cost of production and freightage. Mr. Lee says he does not know what it actually yielded, but believes it must have been about $90 per ton. The ore shipped was second-class, as he had selected from it one ton which was worked at the mine and gave $225 in silver. Dr.
Phelps once carried 25 pounds to San Francisco, and as worked there gave at the rate of $300 per ton. The mine has a shaft to the depth of 150 feet, and the whole work has been done at no expense above the products. The only losses ever sustained were by thefts of stock and destruction of property by Indians.

This is undoubtedly a valuable property, and has been sufficiently tested by working processes to warrant that it would prove a choice investment for mining capitalists, if operated by skillful miners. Mr. Lee will supply any man or number of men who wish to earnestly try the ore, with all necessary for that purpose, either at the mine or in Tucson. It has been suggested that men of means in Tucson might very properly form a company, put in $1,000 or so each, erect works, and make it profitable to themselves and thereby to the whole community.

ANOTHER CHANGE.—We have been favored with military General Orders No. 2, from Drum Barracks, of date Feb. 2; which reads:

In accordance with suggestions from Headquarters of the Army, the post heretofore known as "Camp Thomas," will be hereafter designated and known as "Camp Apache."

Whether or not there be anything in a name, some people evidently act as if there were. This post was first dubbed Camp Ord, second, Mogollon, third, Thomas, and lastly as above. It has been officially known by all these names within nine months. What next?

Statement of Arizona Finances.

Monday Feb. 27, Capt. Fuller, P.

Dobbin, Judge Brinley and Gen. Bidwell.

GOVERNOR Safford appointed Abraham Frank and Peter Doll Notaries Public for Yuma county, on Feb. 25, and on the 27th, Charles H. Brinley for the same county.

EL HON. R. C. McCORMICK, pronuncio un discreto muy habil en el Congreso sobre asuntos de Indios en Arizona.

EL GOV. SAFFORD, salio para San Diego con el fin de visitar á su familia.

The Arizonan last week contained a characteristically unfair and malicious reference to Prof. A. Eilers, who visited Arizona last Sept., Oct. and November as Deputy Commissioner of mines. Mr. Eilers was limited in his entire expenditures to $1,700 from his departure from until his return to New York, and we venture to say that no man ever did more thorough work under like circumstances, or labor more earnestly to economize his allowance for the public benefit, than he did. In addition to Mr. Eilers being a stranger to the localities of mines, it is notorious that there is not a prominent one in Southern Arizona, that any man can visit alone with safety; therefore immediately upon his arrival in Tucson, Mr. Eilers endeavored to procure an escort of citizens directly or indirectly interested in mines to accompany him to them, and failed to do so after two entire weeks of persistent endeavor.
This is literally the truth and any-other statement is wilfully or ignor-antly false. In addition to this, he was instructed in accordance with law to collect mining statistics relating to mines actually worked, and therefore any expenditure of his time south of the Gila, and east of Gila City, was a departure from the strict purpose of the law under which he was acting.

Mr. Eilers proceeded, as was his duty, to another quarter containing mines actually operated, and in the hope, too, of finding an escort to enable him to examine them with some degree of safety. At Wickenburg, this assistance was promptly extended, and at Prescott the same—at the latter place the citizens contributing of their means to hire an escort. One at least of the citizens of Prescott, accompanied him to the Colorado River. The Prescott people did what they saw to be necessary to enable him to examine mines actually worked. Part of the time, he rode night and day, and never stopped at any personal discomfort.
His mission was thereby quite completely performed; and with the utmost economy of means, haste in traveling, energy in his examinations, he exceeded his allowance for expenditures by about $100. Arizona was well treated by Mr. Eilers, and it is a shame that a man exists within her borders to follow him with defamation.

of Indian Affairs for this Territory has
